

An aerial photograph of the Port of Portofino, Italy. The harbor is filled with numerous sailboats and yachts of various sizes. The water is a deep blue-green color. The town of Portofino is built into a steep, green hillside that rises from the water's edge. The buildings are colorful, with many in shades of yellow, orange, and red. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.

PORTOFINO BEYOND THE SEASON

A CURATED EARLY-SEASON ESCAPE ALONG THE LIGURIAN RIVIERA

INTRODUCTION

The Location

A place that reveals itself slowly, through light, colors and atmosphere.

Set along the Italian Riviera, Portofino embodies a refined and intimate way of experiencing the coast — where elegance is understated and every moment feels naturally curated.

Just beyond, the coastline opens toward the Cinque Terre, where dramatic cliffs, pastel villages and the rhythm of the sea create a landscape both vibrant and timeless.

Together, they offer a setting where exploration and stillness coexist, shaping an experience that is as scenic as it is personal.
